

RELIABLE CAPACITY FOR FOOD & BEVERAGE FREIGHT

We cry over spilled milk. That’s why we check driver compliance on every load, and ensure food-grade standards are met for all of your time-sensitive freight. Whether you’re shipping produce, meat, ice cream, bottled water, spirits, or chips, Convoy has you covered. We’ve built the most tech-connected carrier network in the nation, and have over 300,000 trucks ready to haul your goods. Our technology finds you the most efficient truck at the best price, and dedicated account teams partner with you to improve operations and get the most out of your budget.

More reliable than asset-based carriers. More flexible than traditional brokers.

The combination of our technology (machine learning, automation, and GPS-enabled smartphone app) and our network of 300,000+ trucks equips us to accept more freight at lower costs in any market. We provide flexible capacity year-round, to meet the seasonal demands of food and beverage shippers.
